Dear Margie -

I did not intend to leave your letter so long unanswered but it has just been so hot I am afraid I did not do so many things that I should have done. It was such a pleasure too to get your letter with picture which I am returning It really brought back old times - I am so glad you saw "Mag" White Ware - Yes I knew them all. Mag came to see me once after my husbands death and I have heard nothing of her since she was here to try to sell some grave spaces in Grace Church cemetery that they would never need - I feel sure that you must have

(2) heard Mrs. Mattie speak of Mag and her sister Richard "Dick" as she was called. Mrs. Rudman, Mrs. Mattie's Aunt, always tried to help children who had no parents so Richard spent much of her childhood with the Rudmans and often later visited Mrs. Mattie. I can remember Mrs. Berlean and her two children "Emile and Gussie". They lived in New Orleans until Mrs. Smith also was an aunt of Mrs. Mattie. Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Love, Mrs. Mattie's mother, were sisters. I did not know Mrs. Mott but has always heard my grand mother speak of her. When Mrs. Love was in her last illness she went to N. O. to be with Mrs. Smith and ^{my} grand ma kept

(3)
Mrs. Mattie and just before Mrs Love died she wanted to see her baby so my grand mother took her to D. C. and after the mother's death my grand mother kept Mrs. Mattie and Mrs. Smith in D. C. kept Mrs. Mollie the Episcopal minister here persuaded Mrs. Rudman to take Mrs. Mollie, her mother, but Mrs. Rudman did not want to keep Mrs. Mattie - Mrs Mattie wanted to see her sister so then Mrs. Rudman had her to come in a visit and Mrs. Mattie did not want to go back to D. C. so the minister Mr. Baherrell persuaded Mrs. Rudman to keep both sisters. When you come to S. F. again bring the picture and the letters and I think I will be able to talk to you more coherently than trying to write it all.

Mrs. Laganus is still improving her house making the kitchen larger and putting new floors all over the house and doing over the walls in the house - She was here yesterday and she said she wanted you to come when all is finished. She is going to paint the house too. I am afraid I have not been very much help to you about the old times but while I remember things perfectly this old brain of mine has gotten lazy and does not turn over as fast as it should but I know when I see you I can tell you nearly every thing you want to know. Mrs. Laganus said yesterday you were coming some time soon so I am looking forward for a nice long talk with you of things I can remember. I love to talk about old times and the "long ago" yesterday was real cool and it reminded me to get out my sweaters but today is real hot. I hate to think of the winter that is so near at hand - I have had two calls since I started this letter to you so don't suppose you can find heads and tails of it - I will just go out and sit on the gallery and watch the cars go by - Write me real soon - you don't know how glad I am to get a letter -

Sincerely

"Miss" Lora -

The liturgy for the dead is an Easter liturgy. It finds all its meaning in the resurrection. Because Jesus was raised from the dead, we, too, shall be raised.

The liturgy, therefore, is characterized by joy, in the certainty that "neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord."

This joy, however, does not make human grief unchristian. The very love we have for each other in Christ brings deep sorrow when we are parted by death. Jesus himself wept at the grave of his friend. So, while we rejoice that the one we love has entered into the nearer presence of our Lord, we sorrow in sympathy with those who mourn.

Mrs. Amelia A. Albin,

Dear Wife,

I have just finished putting up the mail and will now try to scratch a few lines for your perusal. I don't know whether I shall be able to write much or not, for I am very sleepy and think I shall go to roost soon. I did not get to bed last night or rather this morning until 2 o'clock. We wanted to rest and eat turkey today as it is Thanksgiving Day, - so we had to get the paper off last night. The day was very dark and disagreeable so we didn't get along very fast, consequently were obliged to work late last night.

Did you observe Thanksgiving Day? I did. Mr. Dodds (the one that married lately) brought in a fine fat gobbler for a roast and Al and I couldn't do it justice, so we decided to take it out to his mother and have her cook it and help us eat it. So this morning we took our gobbler under our arm and hied away to hunt a cook. Mrs. Durrant welcomed us, gobbler and all, and in fifteen minutes after we reached the house the gobbler was in the pot.

We then went to attend the Thanksgiving Union Services of the members of the Methodist, Christian, and Presbyterian churches and all others who desired to participate. E. A. Elder and A.D. Goodwin delivered the sermons. The Christian Church was nearly all out. These three churches unite in many things and it is having a very good affect upon the memberse of the different organizations.

After church was out, we returned to where we had left our gobbler and were greatly pleased to find him already prepared for gratifying our insatiate appetites. Did we leave much of the turkey? Ask of the bones that lay strewn about the table. Just before sundown I returned home having enjoyed myself very well during the day. Durrant's folks are very social clever warm hearted people and I felt very much at home with them.

Mrs. Ella Rash has invited me to take dinner with them next Sunday. So I guess I will go and get another good square meal.

Howard and I have gotten to be very intimate friends. I went to prayer meeting last night, it was held at Brother Criswells, there was quite a good turn out and also a fair show of interest. The sisters were all inquiring about when you were coming home. They said they wanted to see how much that young editor had grown in the last month. I know they don't want to see him or you either any more than I do. It seems as though I haven't seen you for a year or two. The hours drag very slowly by. Hope you will not think of staying till Christmas, for that will be four weeks yet and you have already been gone over a month. If you don't come home pretty soon we will go to boarding, for I can't get along with the house-keeping and the office work too. It takes so much of my time to do the housekeeping and the days are so short, that I am obliged to work at night. I haven't gone to bed before 1 o'clock for two weeks except on Sunday nights and it is too hard on my eyes.

Beebe and I haven't made our trade yet but rather think we will he wants to get into business and I think I can make money by taking him in as a partner.

You say you are going to stay with Jen this week and then visit Mrs. McGlaughlin and then will be ready to start for home. So I suppose you will be here toward the latter part of next week and I will look for you if I get no report to the contrary. This letter will not reach you in Memphis until about next Tuesday, and if you start about the middle of the week another letter would not reach there until you would be started home, so I will not write any more letters after this but will try to remember all the rest and tell you when you get home. I think I can tell you several things if not more. I suppose you got the letter I sent by Em. I suppose she would send it to you as soon as she got home. Steve has gotten two letters from her since she got home. He thinks the old gentleman's case is rather doubtful. Says he don't know when Em will be home.

I think our Christmas Arch is going to be quite a success considerable interest is already being manifested. Mrs. Chriswell says she will be up to see you and the boy as soon as you get home. I generally drop in there of Sunday evening when I get too lonesome to stay at home. The mice did get into that trunk and played "whaley", they didn't do any very material damage, cut up several pieces of stuff and cut a hole in your light calico dress. I have routed them out of it three times.

These cold nights make me think about under shirts, but I guess I can stand it till you get home to make them. I can get them so much cheaper than to buy them all ready made.

Well my eyes are not very good close and I am getting quite sleepy. I will wind this up and go to bed. Hoping you will have a safe and pleasant journey home and that I may have the pleasure of seeing your face ere the setting of many suns. I am as ever your true husband
